EMERGENCY INSTRUCTIONS FOR A TEMPORARY RESPONSIBLE PERSON

As the responsible person for the event/function, you have legal duties with regards to the safety of those persons assisting or attending the event.

Before the event or function you should be aware of:

- What fire protection systems are present;
- How a fire will be detected;
- How people will be warned if there is a fire;
- What staff should do if they discover a fire;
- How the evacuation of the premises should be carried out;
- Where people should assemble after they have left the premises and procedures for checking whether the premises have been evacuated;
- Identification of key escape routes and exits, how people can gain access to them and escape to a place of safety;
- Arrangement for fighting fire;
- How the fire and rescue service and any other necessary services will be called;
- Procedures for meeting the fire and rescue service on their arrival and notifying them of any special risks, e.g the location of highly flammable materials;
- What instruction helpers need and the arrangements for ensuring that this training is given;
- Limitation on numbers of people;
- Playgroup padlocks to gates in playground;
- Checking that all escape routes are clear of obstructions and combustibles.

Before the event or function you should decide:

- The arrangements for fighting fire;
- The arrangements for means of escape for disabled persons;
- The duties and identity of persons who have specific responsibilities if there is a fire;
- The arrangements for the safe evacuation of people identified as being especially at risk, such as those with disabilities, children, members of the public and visitors;
- How you will proceed if life safety systems are out of order, e.g. fire-detection and alarm systems, sprinklers or smoke control systems;
- Who will be responsible for calling the fire and rescue service and any other necessary services;
- Who will meet the fire and rescue service on their arrival and notify them of any special risks, e.g. the location of highly flammable materials; and
- Your plans to deal with people once they have left the premises, especially children.

At the start of the event or function you should notify all those present about:

- The no smoking policy;
- The emergency warning signal;
- Who is supervising and how to identify them;
- Location of exits and escape routes;
- Taking only valuables immediately to hand but not to go to collect other belongings;
- The location of muster points; and what will happen after that (e.g. re-entry to the building).

During the event or function you should ensure that:

- Escape routes and exits do not become blocked;
- The no smoking policy is adhered to;
- No naked flames are started;
- Rooms do not become overcrowded;
- Noise levels cannot drown out the fire alarm; and
- If necessary, the number of persons in your premises is limited or controlled.

Westwick Room Hire only: I am aware that the Westwick Room gates have an additional bolt to open at the bottom of the gate.

I am aware that the main entrance door MUST be closed for the duration of my booking.

I have read and understood the above and as the responsible person for the event/function, I have legal duties with regards to the safety of those persons assisting or attending the event.
